MR. BUCK AND MISS BOUIC MAR-RIED LAST NIGHT.

The Coblenzer-Strasburger Wedding at

Rauscher's-Other Events-

Personal Notes.

Miss Isabel Boulc, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Veirs Bouic of Rockville, and Mr. Harry Herbert Buck of Washington, were married at eight o'clock last evening, the groom's father, Rev. Charles E. Buck, rector of Rock Creek Church, Washington, officiating. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride and was witnessed by only relatives and a few intimate friends of the young couple. No prettier marriage has been solemnized in Rockville in a long while and it was one of more than usual interest.

The bridal party was preceded into the parlor, where the ceremony was performed, by four little children—Misses Helen Bru-nett and Ellen Offutt and Master Clements Offutt of Rockville and Master Haywood Siddons of Washington-all wearing white costumes and carrying garlands of daisies, and the ushers—Messrs Albert M. Bouic, a brother of the bride, and William F. Pret-tyman, the bride's cousin, both of Rock-

The bridesmaids were Misses Daisy Hege and Eliza Choate of Rockville, and Misses Bessie Buck, a sister of the groom, and Blanche Nicholson of Washington. The groomsmen were Messrs. C. Norman Bouic of Rockville, a brother of the bride; Joseph Balley of Newark, N. J., and Robert Brad-shaw and John Burgess of Washington. Miss Jennie Bailey of Newark, N. J., was maid of honor, and the best man was Mr. Henry Huntington of Washington. M.ss Laura Bradley of Potomac, rendered the wedding marches. The bride was given away by her father.

The bride's gown was a handsome and becoming one of marquise lace, over white silk lisse and white satin, and she carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. Her tulle veil was simply fastened with lillies of the valley. The bridesmaids wore pretty gowns of white net over white silk gowns of white net over white slk, and carried white sweet peas tied with yellow ribbon. The maid of honor was similarly attired and carried white sweet peas tied with white ribbon. The bride's only ornament was a diamond cross, suspended at the neck by a stender gold chain.

The drawing room was prettily decorated with daisies, as were the staircase and hallway, while in the dining room were a profusion of tastefully arranged roses and potted plants. The room in which the cere-mony was performed was lighted with nu-merous candles, and a bell of daisies, be-neath which the young couple stood, added much to the beauty of the scene.
Following the ceremony a reception was held, the newly married couple being assisted by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Veirs Bouic and Rev. and Mrs. Charles E. Buck, and by Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Bouic of Baltimore. There were many guests from different points, including a large number of Washington friends of the young couple, a special car bringing them out from the city.

The dining room was in charge of Mrs.

William Dorsey, and she was assisted by Mrs. Charles W. Prettyman, Mrs. John L. Brunett, Mrs. Lee Offutt, Mrs. N. D. Offutt and Miss Cora Edmondston. Mr. and Mrs. Buck left for an extended trip. Upon their return they will take up their residence in Washington, where Mr. Buck is successfully engaged in business.

Miss Helen Talbott, daughter of Mr. H. Maurice Talbott of Rockville, sailed for Europe yesterday with a party of Washington friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jules Demonet have opened their summer home in the Blue Ridge mountains, where they will remain until fall.

TENTH ANNIVERSARY

BARRY GARRISON ENTERTAINS ITS FRIENDS AND COMRADES.

An Interesting Program Rendered-Speech by Commander of Roosevelt Garrison-Business Meeting.

About 300 invited guests attended the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the formation of Gen. Wm. F. Barry Garrison, No. 26, Army and Navy Union, last night at Concordia Hall, 6th and E streets northwest. The auditorium was appropriately decorated with the national colors and tropical plants, while the platform was decorated with colors of the garrison and large vases of cut flowers.

A brief business meeting preceded the evening's entertainment. Commander

Michael J. Hackett presided, and in a brief address stated how ten years ago a few soldiers got together and formed the nucleus of the now prosperous organization. Barry Garrison now has a member-ship of 264. He also told of the good the organization had accomplished for the widows and orphans of deceased comrades. The next speaker was Commander Sig-mund J. Block, a past officer of the G. A. R., and at present head of the Porter Garrison, No. 6. He related a story of a Fourth of July celebration held in his native city, Vienna, Austria, in 1860, and of what an impression the American flag made on him, then a boy. He told how he became an American citizen, and of his experience as a soldier during the civil war, and cona soldier during the civil war, and con-cluded by exhorting the young men to stand by the old flag, which had made such a grand and glorious country. Commander J. J. Gordon of Col. Theodore Reosevelt Garrison, No. 74, Spanish War Soidlers, Sailors and Marines, was called on, and in an entertaining talk compil-mented the Barry Garrison and the ladies' auxiliary. "We young Spanish war boys have just begun to organize, and hope ere long to have an organization in this community which will be a credit to ourselves and an honor to the grand man after whom we have elected to name it. And we hope to soon have a successful ladies' auxiliary like this good old garrison." A full orchestra rendered suitable music and an entertaining program was given by the pupils of Miss Cora Shreve's dancing

Mr. Hugh Cosgrove entertained in songs, after which there was dancing and a bountiful supper.

The Old Michigan Renamed. The Navy Department has announced that he name of the old cruiser of the great akes has been changed from Michigan to Wolverine. One of the new battleships having been given the name Michigan the department changed the name of the older ship to avoid confusion, giving it a name of local color. The new name was suggested by citizens of the state of Michigan.

LEMP. In loving but sad remembrance of our darling boy, GEORGIE J. LEMP, who was killed by the Berwyn car, 5th and K streets, two years ago today, June 22, 1903. Oh, not in cruelty, not in wrath, The reaper came that day; 'Twas an angel visited the green earth And took the flower away.

COTT. In sad and loving remembrance of our mother, LUCY SCOTT, who departed this life three years ago today, June 22, 1902. What is home without our mother?
What are all the joys we meet,
When her loving smile no longer
Greets us as she us did meet?
The days seem long, the nights are drear,
The time rolls slowly on,
And, oh, how dark is life around us!
What is home without her there?

BY HER CHILDREN
